BEACH OLYMPICS

BEACH OLYMPICS:

$200 per team

Pick 4 of the following events for your chance at the Gold! Teams of 4-5 participants.

Aqua Blast - Each team has a giant slingshot that shoots water balloons. Team members work together to shoot the balloons into a plastic baby pool held by other team members. The team with the most catches and water at the end wins.

Tug-O-War- Put your group through this vigorous test in this Beach Olympics classic. Teams go face to face and attempt to pull the other team across the designated marker.

Obstacle Course - This relay event will match speed with agility and coordination. On signal, the individual will compete the tasks and run to the opposite end and tag their teammate. This will continue until all members complete the course. Obstacles may include hurdles, hula hoops, jump rope, and other surprises. The team with the fastest time wins.

Land Skiing - A group of 6-8 people must stand on tow long boards with one foot on each board. As a team, they must travel from point A to point B on their land skis.

Fire Brigade - Each team is given a bucket with several holes in it. Using this bucket, one team member at a time will run to baby pool and scoop up water. They then must run back, pour the water into their team's bucket, and pass the bucket off to the next person. The team that has the most water in their designated time limit wins.

Balloon and Body Relay - A balloon is placed between two members' bodies. Without using their arms or hands to hold the balloon in place, they must run to the finish line where they pass off the balloon to their awaiting teammates, again with-ought using their arms or hands. The team with the fastest time wins.

Egg Toss - How do you like your eggs? Hopefully, you like them to travel flawlessly through the air and not smash all over your partner's face. Everyone participates in pairs to have a chance to win their team a clunk of points by tossing eggs back and forth, slowly moving further and further apart!

Third Leg Relay - Team members wrap a "third leg" (a pair of pantyhose with a potato in the toe) around their waist. The task is to proceed in their designated lane using only the "third leg" to hit a ball down to their awaiting team member. The "third leg" is passed off to the next person on the team and must hit it back. The team with the fastest time wins.
